THE EMIGRANT:

A Weekly Paper to be published in Milwaukee, on Saturday, the first week of December, 1850, and every succeeding Saturday.

☞ Terms—$2 00 per annum, quarterly in advance

To those who behold—every year—thousands of toiling and industrious human beings coming to seek a home, and a shelter, far from the land of their childhood, in this American Republic, it may not appear strange that a man, (an Irish Emigrant himself,) should think of establishing a newspaper, devoted, in some measure, to the instruction and guidance of his fellows—a directory, as it were, to the stranger, in fixing on a set principle of action, suited alike to all grades and all callings—cautioning the unwary and unitiated, against the numerous snares and many pitfalls, that are constantly laid in their innocent way, [by the designing and cruel-hearted,] in which they lose their property, their peace of mind, and often times their health, never, never, (perhaps with few exceptions,) to recover those pecuniary losses, or their former happiness
The public are aware how many aspersions our old countrymen are subjected to, [sometimes deserved, but oftener not—intoxication, quarreling, and theft being the principal accusations in the calendar of crimes,] but it must be acknowledged that those misfortunes befall us from the want of some kind monitor—some trustworthy friend, to keep us in the right way, and guide our steps through the mazes of danger and vice, into which the young and unguarded fall, without knowing when that danger is at hand, or how to avoid it.
To bring the settler then to a just level with the native citizen, in every department, will be the proudest task of the Editor, and if the success of the undertaking be only partial for a time, still, with a little encouragement from the people, the laborer will be excited to greater action, and renewed perseverance, disclaiming [in toto] all party politics, at the same time exposing injustice and unmasking fraud, infamy, and deceit, too commonly practiced in a new country.
The increasing poverty of Ireland, and other European countries, [accompanied, alas! this harvest, with the failure of the wheat and potatoe crop,] must drive half a million more, next spring, to the friendly shores of this continent, and therefore, it is more than ever necessary, that our brethren should have reliable information and unprejudiced advice in a public print
The hardy and bold man from the Mountains of Kerry—the plodding, sober-minded of the rich fields of Limerick or Meath—the industrious artizan of Manchester or Birmingham—the rough, healthy looking farmer of Leicester or Norfolk—the far-off Highlander of Caithness, or the more refined Southerner from Clyde Dale, may all profit alike by some organ suited to their tastes, yet drawing them still closer, in heart and mind, to the interests and welfare of their adopted nation
We close this notice with a hope that this publication will obtain a fair patronage, from all classes, [the people of Wisconsin in particular,] and with the assurance that our motto shall be—"The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth!" oct19-dtd

Fancy Articles.—He is also prepared to make all kinds of fancy articles, such as ladies' and gentlemen's portfolios, caskets, card, spectacle and segar cases, pocket books, &c, with neatness and despatch.

POPULAR CYCLOPEDIA

OR

MODERN DOMESTIC MEDICINE

BY KEITH IMRAY, M. D.

Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, and Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh.

AMERICAN EDITION.

One large Octavo Volume, substantially bound.

THIS work presents a concise but clear view of the predisposing causes, premonitory signs, and distinguishing symptoms of disease, with the methods of cure recommended by the most eminent physicians.
The best modes of employing the medicines in general use are faithfully described ; a.. the most approved rules for regulating diet and regimen during the periods of disease and convalescence, are amply furnished.
The art of Preserving Health, embracing special Treatises on Diet, Air, Temperance, Bathing, Clothing, and Exercise, is fully considered.
The publishers of the American edition have introduced Dr. Imray's work with short, illustrated, very complete sketches of Anatomy, Physiology and Surgery; and with directions for the domestic management of the sick, the preparation of their food, and the economy of the sick room, &c. They have also annexed a comprehensive MOTHER'S MEDICAL GUIDE, containing directions for the preservation of health during pregnancy, rules for managing the lying-in-room, and the treatment of infants, including air, clothing, exercise, &c. Also, a large number of valuable prescriptions, arranged for ready application ; and a very full classified table of medicines, exhibiting their medicinal properties, doses and uses.
The Index is unusually complete, making the whole a most perfect and valuable work for families.
It can confidently be recommended to physicians and apothecaries, as well as to the public, as a book that will be found singularly convenient for ready reference.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMAN.

BY MRS. E. LITTLE.

"The Rights of Woman"—what are they?
The right to labor and to pray;
The right to watch while others sleep;
The right o'er others' woes to weep;
The right to succor in reverse;
The right to bless while others curse;
The right to love whom others scorn;
The right to comfort all that mourn;
The right to shed new joy on earth;
The right to feel the soul's high worth;
The right to lead the soul to God,
Along the path her Saviour trod—
The path of meekness and of love,
The path of faith that leads above,
The path of patience under wrong,
The path in which the weak grow strong.
Such Woman's Rights—and God will bless,
And crown their champions with success.

From the Cleveland True Democrat.

POVERTY'S COMPLAINT.

O God! on this, thy glad green earth,
I find myself an outcast left,
For me there is no cheerful heart,
From me are all earth's joys bereft.

I look abroad, the pleasant fields
With fragrant verdure sweetly smile,
But to my saddened spirit yields
No cordial that my grief's beguile.

I see the favored son of wealth
In Plenty's lap securely lie,
While Hunger, slowly and by stealth,
Leads out my suffering frame to die.

I ask not power, I ask not place,
Nor yet the laurels fame can give;
I ask remember of the race
The simple privilege to live.

Pacific News.

The city of Paris is about to erect along the grand avenue of the Champs Elysees three hundred statues in marble, of Parisians distinguished in the Administration of the city, in letters, in science, the fine arts, or commerce. The statues will alternate with beautiful fountains, forming rows on each side of the avenue.

Good Pasturing Land, once found.—O. C. Pratt, one of the judges of Oregon, who is pretty well posted up in the affairs of both Oregon and California, as well as their resources, says that in all his journeyings, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Iowa, surpass any thing he has yet seen for good land, in any quantity. As the traveling of Judge Pratt has not been, by any means short, his opinion is of some value.

The fees of the doctors who attended Sir Robert Peel, after the accident which deprived him of life, have been just paid by his executors. There were seven doctors—one received twelve hundred and twenty dollars, three received five hundred dollars each, and one apothecary, who worked harder than all the rest put together, got some two hundred and forty dollars; while two M. D.'s, who helped Sir Robert Peel home after he was hurt, got one hundred dollars each. Considering that the illness of Mr. Peel lasted but three days, the doctors were tolerably well paid.

Priest Renouncing Romanism.—Rev. Mr. Petit, a Romish Priest, born near Lyons, in France, and of high standing as a priest, came to America in 1840, and is now residing in Louisville, Kentucky. He has written a book, recently, renouncing the Romish faith and exposing the corruptions of its priests, under the title of "Americans Warned of Jesuitism, or the Jesuits Unveiled."

Jenny Lind. A writer in Holden's Magazine writes as follows:

"Come and hear her! Sell your old clothes, dispose of your antiquated boots, distribute your hats, hypothecate your jewelry, come on the canal, work your passage, walk, take up a collection to pay expenses, raise money on a mortgage, sell 'Tom' into perpetual slavery, dispose of 'Bose' to the highest bidder, stop smoking for a year, give up tea, coffee, and sugar, dispense with bread, meat, garden sass, and 'such like' luxuries—only get the needful change, only 'elevate the breeze,' and then come and hear Jenny Lind! But I am at the bottom of my paper and I must close, in a state of excitement unparalleled since that of Adam when he woke up one morning and saw Eve making the tea and getting breakfast in the backyard of his country seat.

Essentially yours, ———.

BUEL DEFEATED!—Cass down at Home.—We rejoice. With hearty joy do we announce the fact, that BUEL, of Detroit, is overthrown!

Gen Cass has done everything that man can do, to humiliate the North, and crush the progress of Freedom: and he has labored, in season and out—speaking at towns, corners, and by-places, to secure Buel's election.

In vain. The People, rising above party, have flung their indignant judgment in the face of Senator Cass, and laid low his pliant tool, Buel by ONE THOUSAND majority! Thus will it be everywhere, ere two years roll round. The men of this land—order-loving and law-obeying though they be—will not rest in the sacrifices of Right and Justice.—Cleveland True Democrat.

Hydrahgo, one of Van Amburg's assistants in taming animals, at Toronto, lately went into a cage in which a panther, a tiger, a lioness, a cougar, a leopard, and an hyena had been placed. The tiger became sullen, when Hydrahgo struck him with a whip, which so enraged the beast that he sprang upon the man and brought him down to the floor. At the moment Van Amburg sprang into the cage—took the tiger off—and saved the man's life.

Visit of Military to Europe.—One of our military companies, known by the name of the "New York Light Guard," have, it appears, in contemplation, a visit to Paris, London and Liverpool. For the purpose of carrying this project into execution, an honorary member has volunteered to give $5000, which will aid to a great extend in defraying the expenses. The company numbers one hundred men, all of whom will take passage in one of the Collins's new steamers.

MICHIGAN, THREE CHEERS! Make way for the State of the Lakes. The home of Gen. Cass speaks. She speaks, too, for freedom, and in stern, terrible repudiation of the man who has attempted to reach the goal of his personal ambition by bowing down to the foulest oppression that curses the earth. The author of the Nicholson letter, the heir apparent to the next Presidency, is stricken down upon his own hearht-stone. Blasted by the burning breath of a free people whom he has betrayed, like Lot's wife, he shall long be a monument to warn the votary of unhallowed ambition, that the path of treason to freedom is the way to death.

Of all Gen. Cass's friends, not a man goes to Washington in the next Congress, to tell the story of those who perished. Poor Gen. Cass! We pity him. He is dead—politically and morally dead. He died as a fool dieth. As a traitor to the holiest interests of his race, he now awaits a burial, which is the only honor his country has in store for him.—Independent (N. H.) Democrat.

Escaped Chattles.—We learn from the Easton (Md.) Democrat that seven slaves, a man, his wife and five children, belonging to Mrs. H. M. Tilghman, escaped from her residence in Miles River Neck, on Sunday night week, taking with them a horse.

MILWAUKEE:

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 21.

A NEW THEOLOGIAN.—Statesmen turning Preachers.—Since Daniel Webster mixed himself up with Andover Seminary, and set Theological Professors to work to prove slavery and slave-catching, right from the Bible, the public have been prepared to hear almost any folly, either ridiculous or impious, from the old superannuated politicians, whose only divinity is office and spoils. Webster was shocked at the wickedness of those who set up the Bible against legalized slavery, but Gen. Cass, in his recent letter to the Clay barbacue, at Lexington, Kentucky,—which was the text of his campaign speeches in favor of Buel—undertook to make the United States Constitution supersede the Bible altogether, declaring that the Constitution is "a law high enough for any American citizen, in the regulation of his CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS DUTIES." In his canvass speeches, he is said to have claimed the same supremacy for all constitutional laws, and especially for the Fugitive Slave Law. Gen. Cass, had he been in Darius's place, would have ordered Daniel into the lion's den instanter, for praying contrary to law.

Well, christians must now lay aside their Bibles and prayer books, and commence studying the Acts of the Apostles of the American Congress. But if sinners can read the acts of Webster, Cass, and their like, without swearing, they may consider themselves above all danger of falling into the habit of using profane language. And saints, who can stand their theological expositions of constitutional law, without sinful anger, or feeling anxious—as the disciples did at Jericho—for a slight shower of burning brimstone, are in no danger of falling from grace.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION.—For Governor, Briggs, Whig, has 56,836 votes; Boutwell, Dem., 35,871; Phillips, Free Soil, 27,734.

SENATE—Whigs, 10; Democrats and Free Soilers, 22; vacant 8.

HOUSE—Whigs 168; Democrats and Free Soilers, 171; 75 towns no choice.—The Senate fill their own vacancies, and elect a Governor from two candidates sent up from the House, so that Boutwell or Phillips will doubtless be chosen Governor. The character of the House will be determined by the election in the 72 towns, next Monday. Should the Whigs have a majority in joint ballot, Winthrop will be chosen U. S. Senator. If not, a Free Soiler, or a Democrat will be chosen.

☞ James Hathaway, who has advertised himself as a Bounty Land Agent, is declared by the Department at Washington, to be an impostor.

☞ Gov. Doty's majority is over 6000, and is daily increasing. The Governor should request the people up North to stop voting for him.

We look to see Joshua R. Giddings elected United States Senator.—Wisconsin Free Dem.

That same you shall see, before another year rolls around.—Chardon (Ohio) Dem.

Rev. Mr. Carlton, of Middlefield, preached at the Court House, Sunday afternoon on the "Fugitive Bill." He demonstrated that it is contrary to God's Law, and was therefore the duty of all, to disobey it. Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and let the oppressed go free, is an injunction of heaven that must be obeyed. So goes on the war upon the law.—Every where it is denounced. When the pulpit speaks out there is hope.—Ibid.

☞ The Transcript relates that the sister of Mr. Wise dreamed that he was killed and horribly mangled on the very night, and about the hour when he came to his death by falling from the freight train on the Western Railroad, where he acted as brakeman. She resides in Hanover street, and was so much distressed by her dream, that her sobs awoke a lady sleeping in the adjoining chamber, to whom Miss Wise related her fatal vision.

VARIETY.

At the intermission of Jenny Lind's morning concert, in New-York, Mr. Barnum carried around Tom Thumb on his shoulder, which created a great excitement.

Mr. Dempster, the distinguished vocalist, has returned to New-York, and is to sing Sargeant's "Greeting to America," which was rejected by the Jenny Lind committee.

It is said that (my Lord) Thurlow Weed, intends spending the winter in Rome, and that he will sail with Bishop Hughes, for Europe.

Lamartine has returned from England, and is now publishing a series of papers under the title of "England in 1850."

JESUITS.—The members of the order of Jesuits have been recently expelled from the republic of New Grenada, their residence in the country having been found, after a year's trial, an insufferable evil.

A Charleston paper recommends no southern lady to marry a northern man, unless he is in favor of slavery. Hard!

Marshfield, Mr. Webster's own town, in which he advised his whig neighbors to vote for Little, democrat, rather than for Fowler—who holds to the higher law—voted for Congress as follows:

Orrin Fowler, - - -	143
William Baylis, - - -	64
E. P. Little, - - -	28

Of the votes for Fowler, 14 were whigs, the rest of the whigs voted for Baylis.—Chronotype.

HORRIBLE SUICIDE.—A man by the name of Haynes, of Brooklyn, N. Y., committed suicide by thrusting a pair of tongs down his throat, on Friday week, from the effects of which he died the day following.

The Governor of Alabama refuses to convene the legislature to consider the proposition of secession.

A lady who had exhausted the vocabulary of names for her numerous daughters, named the last "Ann-so-forth."

Why is Jenny Lind like a malefactor?

Because she has been condemned to Sing-Sing!

"I think," said Mrs. Partington, getting up from the breakfast table, "I will take a tower, or go on a discursion. The bill says, if I recolect rightly, that a party is to go to a plural spot, and to mistake of a collection. I hope it won't be so cold as ours for the poor, last Sunday; why, there wasn't efficient to buy a feet of wood for restitute widders." And the old lady put on her green calash.

A Harrisburgh paper gives the following case of absence of mind:

A girl, who was one of our first loves, was one night lighting us out, after having passed a delightful evening, and in bashful trepidation, she blew us out of the door, and drew the candle behind the door and kissed it.

A MOUTH LIKE AN ELEPHANT.—A good story is told of Sully, the painter, a man distinguished for refinement of manners, as well as his success in the fine arts. At a party one evening, Sully was speaking of a belle, who was a great favorite.

"Ah," said Sully, "she has a mouth like an elephant."

"Oh, Mr. Sully, how can you be so rude?"

"Rude, ladies! what do you mean? I said she had a mouth like an elephant's, because it is full of ivory."

Preston King, the noble Free Soiler of N. York, has been re-elected to Congress by 2000 majority.

H. J. Raymond is spoken of for Speaker of the Assembly, in the N. Y. legislature.

South Carolina contains 128,000 more slaves than white people.

The New York Herald advises that petitions for the amendment of the fugitive law, should be received, but not read. That's one way to stop "agitation."

Chicago has borrowed $30,000 at the east, which causes her city orders to pass at par.

ELEGANT PRONUNCIATION.—Mr. Clay, it is said, says thar and whar. Daniel Webster says individool, and nater. Patrick Henry used to say yeth.

Mrs. Swisshelm and her family, in all ten persons, were poisoned a few days since, by partaking of a roasted turkey. None of them had died from the effects of the poison, but two or three remained dangerously ill.

The Syracuse Journal, whig, declares that a Seward whig will be elected to the U. S. Senate, by the legislature of New York.

Fifteen States of the Union have appointed committees of citizens to make arrangements for the exhibition of industrial specimens at the World's Fair of '51.

COLORED MILITIA.—The Governor General of Canada has directed the organization of an Independent Rifle Company, to be formed of the colored men of the county of Haldimand.

A new mode of Telegraphing, it is stated has been discovered in England. Any person can make a communication. The letters are printed, inside of a sealed envelope, the orifice made by the instrument being very slight. The patent has been bought up in England by the Telegraph monopoly there.

It is stated by the Savannah Republican, that the owners of the Fugitive Slaves (the Crafts) have taken measures to prosecute the U. S. Marshal and Commissioners of Boston, as well as the members of the Vigilance Committee under the Fugitive Slave Law.

The drawing of the American Art Union takes place on the 20th next month.

Jenny Lind has given a Concert at Washington, Daniel Webster being present, who cheered enthusiastically.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Janesville, Nov. 18th, 1850.

Mr. S. Mr. Booth:—Enclosed, you will find One Dollar, for the continuance of the Free Democrat. I am glad to find you a true friend of Liberty, and a deadly enemy to the "sum of all villainies." I hope you will continue in the course you have pursued, for, depend upon it, the people will sustain you. The last election proves, to a demonstration, that the people are waking up to their duty, and all that the wire-pullers can do, will not whip them into Regular nominations, against their will.

I hope God, in his providence, may soon relieve the nation from a Whig Fugitive Slave Law signing President. Let us, one and all, go for a repeal of the accursed thing. Such a law would disgrace the Autocrat of Russia.

I remain, yours for Repeal,

N. S.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

The N. York Times, after saying of Queen Victoria, that as a mother and wife, she is an ornament to her sex, thus describes her household:

The personal habits of the Queen and her family are extremely simple and plain. Breakfast is over by nine; then a couple of hours are devoted to the perusal of letters and the dispatch of business, which consists of sending abstracts of the public documents which she has to sign. Between twelve and two, the Queen and her family generally walk in the private grounds of the palace, if it be fine; if the weather does not permit of out-of-doors exercise, Prince Albert and she apply themselves to drawing and etching.

Between two and three the royal party lunch. This repast, which is in fact an early dinner, is a very private one. The Queen, Prince Albert, Princess Royal, and the Prince of Wales, sit down to a single joint [usually a roast shoulder of mutton] and a few dishes. There is a very little wine partaken of at this meal. When it is ended Prince Albert goes into the garden, [for the Queen allows no smoking within her walls] and disposes of a couple of cigars.

FOND DU LAC RAILROAD.—The Railroad from Fond du Lac to Milwaukee, and to Chicago, and thus directly to Boston, New York, &c., says the Fond du Lac Journal, is a fixed fact. Through the exertions of its townsman, Judge Macy, and Hon. A. Hyatt Smith, of Janesville, a loan of a million has been negotiated, and the balance of the stock taken up. The engineers, Messrs Johnson and Lee, have viewed the whole route, and are now in town fixing upon a terminus, and making preparations for laying the route, &c. It is estimated that the work will be completed in two years.

POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUSTICE WALWORTH.

Nov. 20, 1850.

The State of Wisconsin, vs. Thomas Allen, arrested for an assault and battery, with an attempt to kill, upon his wife, Elizabeth Allen.

The evidence was as follows: Allen lives in the Fifth Ward—came home on the evening of Tuesday last, 19th inst., in liquor, commenced beating his wife, which he followed up till she was nearly senseless,—then took a long three-tined fork, nearly a foot and a half long, with which he attempted to stab her,—was detected by the neighbors, and taken care of till arrested.

He was examined, and in default of $2,000 bail, was committed for trial.

Daniel O'Leary, charged with stealing buckskin mittens, and other property, amounting to $10 75, from O. Foley, on the 5th of November. Convicted, and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the county jail.

LIFE ASSURANCE.
Ætna Insurance Company, HARTFORD, Conn.—ANNUITY FUND, $150,000.—This well known and long established Company, having organized a new department for LIFE INSURANCE, with an entirely distinct capital, exclusively pledged with its reserved accumulations, for the payment of losses upon Life Insurance only, and in no event liable for the other debts, contracts, or engagements of the Company, is now prepared to issue Policies on Lives, at rates materially reduced from those charged by the Mutual Companies. The leading idea of the system adopted by this Company, is, to ascertain precisely what it is worth to insure a given amount upon a life for a certain time, and to charge precisely that sum, and no more: it is attended with none of those vexatious contingencies which are inseparable from the mutual system—it has nothing to do with scrip dividends or bonuses, the declaration of which upon true and equitable principles, is attended with so much difficulty and perplexity—it is perfectly simple, as well as uniform and equal in all its operations.
The promptness, fairness and liberality which have marked all the dealings of this Company, for a period of thirty years, and the well known character of its officers and directors, afford the surest guaranty that its affairs will be so managed as to afford to the assured that ultimate safety and security which is of first importance in Life Assurance.
Policies will be granted payable after death, or upon the party's arriving at a specified age, at his option; in either case, free from the claims of creditors. The usual extra risks will be assumed by this Company at reasonable rates.

YOUNG MEN'S LITERARY CLUB.—Yesterday, we had barely room to express our views of the merits of the war question, discussed by this Association, without alluding to the merits of the debate, as an intellectual performance. We were pleased with the ability manifested by the speakers, and trust that they will exert themselves hereafter, to maintain and increase the interest now felt in their discussions. And we beg leave to offer them a few suggestions.

1. Prepare yourselves before speaking, by as thorough an examination as you can give, to the subject to be discussed. Don't hope to gain any credit by pleading non-preparation, on rising to speak. It is a poor compliment to an audience, and a cheapening of your own services, to offer them what costs you nothing.

2. Be sure you have something to say, before you attempt to say it. To talk, for the sake of talking, is neither interesting nor profitable.

3. Be concise, and consecutive. Express your thoughts in the fewest words consistent with perspicuity. Lawyers and Editors are prone to be too diffuse. And let it not be said of your speeches, as was once said of a minister's sermon, that the premises might have the small pox, and the conclusion would not be in any danger of taking it.

4. Never attempt to produce all the arguments that can be thought of, in favor of your position, but sieze upon the strong points in the case, and press them with all the force of argument and eloquence you can command. Many a good cause has been ruined, by an excess of small reasons presented ad infinitum.

5. Always do your very best in every discussion.

6. And to do this, if possible, always take the side which your judgment and conscience approve.

There. We offer these remarks, not in the spirit of the school master, but, with a sincere desire to promote the interests of the Association. We feel proud of the Young Men of Milwaukee. They have talent, and energy, to make themselves an honor to the city, and the exercise of an unconquerable will, and an indomitable perseverance, will make their character and influence salutary, hope-inspiring, and controlling, in all that pertains to human progress, and human well-being, in the city, and in the State.

Happy is that community, whose pride and glory are virtuous, intelligent, high-minded, and educated Young Men.

"AN ILL WIND THAT BLOWS NOBODY GOOD."—Passage across Spring Street bridge, being totally obstructed yesterday, some boys got out a skiff, and helped passengers across the chasm, for a cent a head, ladies free.—They drove such a thriving trade, that other boys soon got out another boat, and all the lively effects of competition in business, were illustrated. The boys keep it up to-day, and are making Congressmen's wages at the business.

P. S. The above latest news concerning Spring Street Bridge, was "knocked into a cocked hat," together with the business of the ferrymen, by a float thrown across the gap, which enables passengers to cross with dry feet, and in safety.

☞ A crowd of teamsters collected in East Water Street, yesterday, entirely blocking up the way for some distance. Friend D., wanted us to put 'em in the papers, which we have done accordingly. Out of the way, with your dirt-carts, gentlemen, and leave a passage for other folks.

AWFUL MURDER.

One Man Killed, and two Wounded.

About 4 o'clock this morning, one of the most fiendish murders that has occurred in this city for years, was perpetrated at No. 51 Dey street.

Carnal and Charles Rousseau, sons of C. M. Rousseau, went to bed in the same room about 9 o'clock. Between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, Louis, brother of Charles, was roused by the cries of his brother. Louis, ran into the room, but was instantly stabbed by Carnal, who inflicted a terrible wound in his abdomen, through which the bowels protruded. Carnal gave Louis another terrible wound, six or seven inches in length, just below the collar bone, and then ran into the entry way.

Here the elder Rousseau, who had been roused by the noise, met and seized the murderer, crying out "here he is!" But Carnal, with the ferocity of desperation, grabbed the hair of the old man and drew the knife across his throat, severing at one stroke the windpipe, the jugular veins, and the carotid arteries. In fact, almost cutting Rousseau's head off. Death ensued almost instantly.

Carnal then rushed through a back window and jumped over a fence into a very deep area, where he completely imprisoned himself, and whence he was taken by the police.

The young man, Charles Rousseau, who slept in the room with Carnal, received a stab in the throat which penetrated the gullet, but we believe that it is not dangerous. It is scarcely probable that Louis can recover.

The prisoner was committed immediately after the coroner's jury, which was, that Charles Rousseau came to his death by means of a wound inflicted by a knife, in the hands of Henry Carnak.

We believe that all the parties are Belgians. New York Tribune.

Col. Richard M. Johnson, died at Louisville, on the 19th instant.
